ROCHESTER SCHOOL TO OBSERVE EDUCATION WEEK

Albert Duseault, principal of the Rochester Consolidated School has announced that the staff of the school will present an evening program on November 14th, at 7:30 P.M., for Education Week. Edward Sawicki, principal of the Mayflower Elementary School in Middleboro, will be the speaker and his topic will be "Building Character in the Elementary School". Parents will have the opportunity to confer with the teachers between 8 and 8:30 P.M. A social hour will follow with the teachers serving refreshments.

DANCE AT GRANGE HALL

The Rochester Men's Brotherhood will sponsor a dance in the Rochester Grange Hall on Saturday, November 16th, at 8 P.M. There will be both square and round dancing. Calvin Daggett will call the square dances, and music will be furnished by the Woodchoppers.

ATTENDED COUNTY HEALTH MEETING

Joseph Farwell of Mattapoisett, Egbert Driscoll of Marion and Arthur Lionberger of Rochester attended a meeting last Wednesday of the Plymouth County Health Association, held at the Plymouth County Hospital in Hanson. The association will mail out Christmas Seals this week to almost every home in Plymouth County. Through the sale of these seals it finances its work of fighting tuber-

BOOK FAIR TO BE HELD IN MARION DURING EDUCATION WEEK

The Marion P. T. A. is observing National Education Week by sponsoring its fourth annual Book Fair in conjunction with open house.

Over 500 books will be on display and any book not shown may be ordered. Special prominence will be given children's books ranging from the interests of the pre-primary youngster to the young adults of the Junior High School. In addition to the books, educational games and globes will be available. Some of the categories being offered are: children's books, science, arts and crafts, novels, travel, religion and nature.

There will be a cash and carry table featuring books for both children and adults at a cost of $1.00 or less. All other books may be ordered with a deposit of 50% with Christmas delivery guaranteed.

Fair hours on Wednesday, November 13th are 1:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M.

The Book Fair was also held on Tuesday, the 12th, from 9:00 to 5:00 and from 7:00 to 9:00. An open house was held from 7:30 to 8:45 P.M. on Tuesday at which time the business meeting was held. Refreshments were served. A question and answer period was held with members depositing questions in a box prior to the meeting.

RETURNED TO HOME

Joseph Gibbs, who was recently injured in a fall, has returned to his home on Marion Road in Rochester.

OBSERVED BIRTHDAY

Robert L. Humphrey of Rochester observed his seventeenth birthday on November 9th.

MRS. C. HOWLAND SPEAKS AT ROCHESTER WOMAN'S CLUB ON BENEFITS OF VOCATIONAL HIGH FOR GIRLS

A lecture and colored slides on "What Vocational High School has to offer Girls" was given to members of the Rochester Woman's Club at their November meeting by Mrs. Chester S. Howland, Supervisor of the Girls' Department at Vocational. She was accompanied by Mrs. Malcolm Cameron, Instructor of Sewing, and Night School Supervisor in the Household Arts Department. Mrs. Cameron spoke on "Home Decorating for Adults".

At the business meeting the members were reminded that the First District Conference will be held on Friday, November 15, at the Falmouth Recreation Building in Falmouth. Registration is at 10:00 A.M. and the morning session starts at 10:30. The president of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Kirke L. Alexander, will be presented and the program will consist of songs by the Dennis Woman's Club Chorus and guest speaker, Mildred Beryl Palmer, who will talk on "Life Is What You Make It". Transportation for members will be provided by calling Mrs. Henry B. Smith.

A letter of thanks was read from Mrs. Blanche Robinson of Wareham for the pastries supplied by members of the club for the Snack Bar at Tobey Hospital during the week of October 7 to 11. Members who donated were the Misses Katherine Hartley and Adele Croker, Mesdames Frank T. Howland, L. Rodman Doane, Frank Seaver, Henry Smith and Greenwood Hartley.

A Hi-Fi Record Hop on Saturday night, November 16, will be the first of a series of monthly dances to be held in the large hall of the club house. Wayne Bailey, popular young disc jockey, who may be heard locally over Station WBSM, will be present and will give away 25 free records. Proceeds will aid the Veterans' Christmas Box Committee. Mrs. David Fearing and Miss Adele Croker are in charge.

The club voted to contribute to the Edith Harding Scholarship Fund; the First District Director's Fund and the Plymouth County Health Association Christmas Seal Drive to aid Tuberculosis.

Mention was made of the annual Children's Christmas Party which will be arranged by Mrs. David Fearing and Miss Katherine Hartley. The date will be announced later. All Rochester children are welcome but it is asked that the name of each child who will attend be given to Mrs. Fearing as plans must be made for refreshments and gifts. Over 70 children attended last year.

Mrs. David Fearing reports that the sale of vanilla has been going well but that there are quite a few bottles left at $1. a bottle. The observance of National Education Week was

PARENT-TEACHERS CLUB TO MEET DURING EDUCATION WEEK -- BOOK FAIR TO BE HELD

A meeting of the Mattapoisett Parent-Teachers' Club will be held during Education Week this month. On Thursday, November 14th, the annual Book Fair will be held. The school will be opened to the Public at 6:30. Open house in the classrooms will be held from 7 to 8 P.M. Following Open House a short business meeting will be held. The coffee and social hour will be held in the all-purpose room.

The Book Fair was held last year for the first time and was well received. All who attended were well pleased with the selection of books on display and for sale. The PTC treasury was benefited as well as the public that purchased the books at such attractive prices.

Plan to attend this year, enjoy looking around, knowing your school, meeting the teachers and supporting your PTC.

mentioned. A Thanksgiving message from the American Citizenship Chairman was read by Miss Katherine Hartley.

The next executive board meeting will be on December 2nd at the home of Mrs. Timothy O'Brien. At this meeting the gifts for the veterans' boxes will be wrapped. Any extra donations for these boxes would be very welcome. Christmas wrappings and ribbon will also be needed as each gift is to be individually wrapped and all put in a large box and wrapped this year. This worthy project in which all Women's Clubs join helps to bring a little cheer to our less fortunate friends in Veterans' Hospitals. The Rochester Woman's Club sends their gifts to the Brockton Veterans' Hospital.

Two new members welcomed into the club at this meeting were Mrs. Robert Felton of North Rochester and Mrs. Ernest Sherman of East Rochester.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mesdames William Bullivant, Frank T. Howland, Ward Benner and Wilfred Bruce.

AMERICAN HOME GROUP MEETING THIS WEEK

MRS. D. TRIPP TO HEAD DRIVE FOR RETARDED CHILDREN IN MATTAPOISETT

Mrs. Dorothea Tripp of Main Street, Mattapoisett will lead her town's campaign to raise funds for the Greater New Bedford Chapter for Retarded Children.

A 25-year resident of Mattapoisett and mother of two children, Mrs. Tripp feels that retardation is at last gaining the publicity it needs to make people aware of its prevalence.

"I am glad it's being brought out into the open," Mrs. Tripp said in accepting the Mattapoisett chairmanship. "I think the publicity will help a great deal in finding the inevitable solution to this very serious prob-

"Three hundred and forty mentally retarded children are born in this country every day," Mrs. Tripp continued. "Medical research is making slow but notable gains in their search for cause and prevention of mental retardation and there is now more than ever before great hope for the future. That hope lies in research and research costs money. I am proud to participate in this year's fund campaign and I know the people of Mattapoisett will again do more than their share to make that hope a reality."

MRS. LESHANA SPEAKS ON INDIA AT GUILD MEETING

Mrs. Newman LeShana was the guest speaker at the meeting last Tuesday afternoon of the Women's Community Guild in the vestry of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church. Mrs. Le Shana's topic was "The India I Know". She and Mr. LeShana were missionaries for 28 years in India. Mrs. LeShana, introduced by the World Friendship chairman, Mrs. William J. Spark, Jr., spoke of the customs, religious beliefs and the way of living of the people in India. She was dressed in the attire of the women of India and demonstrated the draping of the sari. She was accompanied by her daughter, Janet, who was attired in the type of dress worn by the young girls of India.

At the business meeting, presided over by Mrs. Frederic E. Reynard, Mrs. Harry Erhard read the report of Mrs. George Eldridge, delegate, of the Old Colony meeting held recently in Marion.

It was voted to donate $25.00 to the American Field Service, $5.00 to the United Church Women, and to purchase additional dishes and a trash barrel for the kitchen.

A new Sunshine project was outlined by Mrs. Harry Locke, and Mrs. Ross Hopkins is heading a Social Action committee.

Mrs. Marshall Ross, chairman, spoke on the annual Christmas Fair, which is to be held on Tuesday, December 3rd, from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. She is being assisted by Mrs. Harry Locke, Mrs. Charles MacLauchlin and Mrs. Lawrence C. Young. Table chairmen are Mrs. Oliver Harrison, dolls and toys; Mrs. Robert Seeley, gifts;
